

Figure 4. The molar part has been detached from the placenta and represented up to one third of the total placental volume.

Figure 5. Algorithm of the management of partial molar pregnancy with an alive foetus.

